Lafayette Consolidated Government not amused by Facebook satire site with similar name

KATC-TV report FEB 6, 2017 - 4:37 PM

A satire site that began with the City's name on it.

The satire Facebook account Lafayette City Government has changed its name to "Unofficial: Lafayette City Government" after pressure from Lafayette Consolidated Government.

"After days of crying about it and filing complaints, LCG got Facebook to force us to change our name," a post on the page states. "That's also after they reported something we posted to try to get our personal accounts suspended. Maybe we should just change our name to Lafayette Constipated Government since they want to be salty."

This win for women didn't come without a significant fight, thanks to deeply ingrained sexism in the sport and the wobbly internal politics of the World Surf League itself.

"The 'bro culture' in surfing is very prevalent," said County Harbor Commissioner Sabrina Brennan, a member of the Committee for Equity in Women's Surfing, or CEWS, a lobbying group that played an integral role in getting women to the event formerly known as Titans of Mavericks. REGONRY I am proud to live in Orangevale and serve the best for the people of Orangevale in terms of parks and our recreation programs. I had that in the past few years some board members are not concerned enough about quality parks or recreation programs. I wish to be a part of the board to keep up quality park development and program development with the funds we now have available. I wish to be part of a board that will create personal differences and put the Orangevale community first.

How people find rumors

THE SCIENCE OF WEBSITE RANKINGS

- Begins with misinformation (via rumors, inaccuracies) or disinformation (via campaign operator)
- People respond to and share the item
- It biases various algorithms to favor it as emerging popular information

MAYOR HATES TREES?

JOHNNY REPORTER MAY 04 2002

After campaigning strongly on an environmental platform, the city's famously green mayor is in hot water for comments made at a charity fundraiser late Tuesday. At the Children's Reading Association's annual Books4Charity gala, Mayor Truman delivered an opening speech that left many in the audience speechless and questioning the event's legitimacy.

Though the mayor's keynote started on warm, celebratory terms, it quickly turned into an improvised rant that blurred between comedic and shocking. Truman began by congratulating the hosts for their 10th annual event before devolving into a nostalgic anecdote that seemed pro-lumber. "I read everything I can get my hands on," said Truman. "But lately there are less books. We should print more!"

The mayor's inflammatory comments encouraging the destruction of forests for reading material aren't the only time they've been in trouble with environmentalists. At last year's March For Earth through the city's downtown, Truman spoke positively about environmentalists organizing the event before noting, "I don't like the term treehugger, though, because I hate hugging trees. You get covered in sap and dirt."

Mayor Truman's increasingly vile anti-tree rhetoric is likely to cause concern in City Hall and amongst prominent party staff and donors. Eyebrows were already raised at the City's lackluster response to a local forest fire last week, when firefighters took two whole hours to arrive on scene after claiming they were busy saving people from a burning building.

On August 20, 2022, a TikTok video was posted, claiming that Disney World was going to lower the drinking age to 18. It was stated that Disney World was battling the Florida government in court to get a resort exemption, which would allow anyone 18 and older to drink on property. The TikTok video acquired millions of views in just a couple days. This story was also posted on facebook, instagram, and Twitter. Shortly after, the story made it on ABC 10 News.

Drinking Age at Disney World May be Lowered to 18

🕒 August 20, 2022

The National Minimum Drinking Age Act was passed by congress and signed into law by President Ronald Reagan in 1984. It “requires that States prohibit persons under 21 years of age from purchasing or publicly possessing alcoholic beverages as a condition of receiving State highway funds.” This was an act to encourage states to raise the minimum drinking age to 21. As it states, it is not mandatory that states set the drinking age at 21, but if a state doesn’t implement 21 as a minimum, the government will withhold state highway funds. Didn’t think you would get a history lesson from us, did you?

Now that we have set up the act, we have some Disney news to go with it. Disney World is looking to defy the minimum drinking age act. The Walt Disney Company is currently battling the state of Florida in the courts over the minimum drinking age. Disney is attempting to lower the minimum drinking age on Disney property to 18. They are clearly doing this to increase their revenue at EPCOT and across

The Claim: Walt Disney Company was seeking a resort exemption to lower the drinking age to 18 years old, in Disney World, Florida.

To find the truth about this story, we will use Michael Caufield's Four Moves and a Habit.

1. Check for previous work: For this case, we looked up this claim on Snopes (fact checking resource). They published an article on the story and labeled it as fake news satire. It was also aired on ABC 10 News, on their fact or fiction segment, where it was determined to be fiction. here.

2. Go upstream to the source: The TikTok video originally came from an article published by the same TikTok user, @mousetrapnews. They have their own webpage dedicated to news stories about disneyland parks.

3. Read laterally: Upon further exploration of the site itself, their About page actually bluntly admits that they only write fake stories about Disney Parks (see picture below).

4. Circle back: If we go back to the main article explaining the story, it reads in the description an explanation of the National Minimum Drinking Age Act passed by congress and signed into law by President Reagan. Learn more (CWU.edu)

What is Mouse Trap News?

Mouse Trap News is the world's best satire site. We write fake stories about Disney Parks stuff. From Disney Park announcements to Disney Hotel and resort news to made-up Disney partnerships, you can be assured that anything you read here is not true, real, or accurate, but it is fun. So technically our slogan The Moused Trusted Name in Disney News isn't true, but we thought it was creative and funny, so we are running with it.

Mouse Trap News was created on a whim to have some fun and write stories about Disney we wish were true. Some Disney sites write deceptive stories for clicks. We write 100% made-up stories for your enjoyment. We also hope that Disney sees how much people like some of our stories and decide to actually make one of our stories a reality!

While you read our articles, be sure to keep your hands, arms, feet, and legs inside the vehicle at all times, and remember these are strictly fictional for your enjoyment. Please share any articles you enjoy reading with your Disney friends and on social media to help us grow and continue to put out fun articles

Facebook's chat now reveals your exact location—and why that's a problem

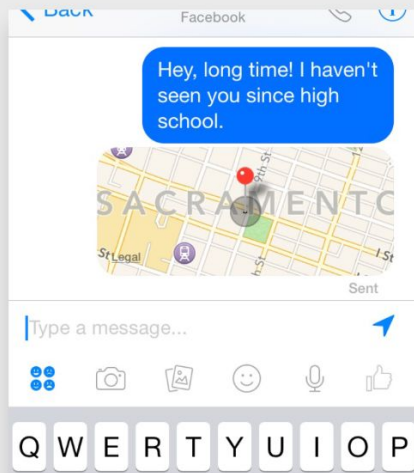

Update: Facebook changed the way this feature worked shortly after releasing it, and no longer reveals one's exact location.

Facebook messenger now shows exact location of every chat message. Just click on a previous chat bubble and, if location was enabled, a map appears.

#privacyfail? Perhaps, and here's why:

Reason 1: It used to just show city. Now it shows full location, retroactively.

When the location feature was introduced in chats, it showed the city where the chat originated. Like most people, I thought it just showed city, essentially "blurring" my exact location. Facebook, however, was storing the exact location, and now it has decided to include it in all previous chats. Fortunately, it's not a problem for me. But imagine, if someone was telling their ex, "I just need a break right now." and thought they were sending their city (and had all but forgotten about the seemingly innocuous feature) and now have

An example of the maps that can be displayed on previous chats by clicking on the chat bubble. It is possible to obtain driving directions as well.

Rumor Versus Fact - Uncovering the Real Story

RUMOR: A story or statement talked of as news without any proof of truth.

FACT: Something objectively verified with real, demonstrable evidence.

RUMOR	FACT
Marion County Public Schools hides public records, restricting access and denying the public guaranteed rights.	Marion County Public Schools prides itself on its open records policy, abiding fully with Florida State Statutes 119. In fact, an online non-profit watchdog group for open government records gave the district an "A" and a "Sunny Award" four years running for having one of the most transparent government websites in the Nation. Only 12 out of Florida's 74 school districts earned an "A" in 2013, the last year this organization awarded such grades for transparency.
Marion County Public Schools does not fully disclose its financial records.	Marion County Public Schools' Business Services/Finance Operation has earned the highest award possible for general accountability 19 years in a row from the Government Finance Officers Association.

How ranking works

THE SCIENCE OF WEBSITE RANKINGS

- Inbound links (credibility)
- Quality of content (appropriate keywords, natural language)
- Accessibility of content (ADA)
- Other factors in your handout
 - Technical things like website loading speed

THE SCIENCE OF SOCIAL RANKINGS

- Quality and quantity of shares
- Quality of content (appropriate keywords, natural language) as measured by engagement

PageRank

Steps to put your content first

Search Engine Optimization (SEO) is your secret weapon!

Step 1: SEO

ON YOUR WEBSITE: BOOST SEO

- Get a .gov, if you can (free!)
- Page rank
- Website loading speed
- Mobile-friendly
- Security
- ADA accessibility
- Standards compliance

See the SEO checklist in the session notes

Website SEO Analysis 7-Point Self-Check

Provided by Mac Clemmens and Maria Lara, Streamline

Checkpoint	Rating	Notes
Get a .gov It's the easiest way to rank #1, and it's free! All special districts qualify.	<input type="checkbox"/> .gov?	https://support.getstreamline.com/obtaining-a-gov-domain You can still keep your old domain and redirect existing traffic.
PageRank / Domain Authority (DA) What is your site's overall ranking? This indicates how important Google thinks your site content is. The higher the ranking, the more likely your organization's pages are to appear in search results. (Note: PageRank is now hidden by Google, but Moz has developed another great tool that rates Domain Authority)	<input type="checkbox"/> out of 100	10: You're getting started 20: Good for a small, local district 30: Normal for organization w/statewide reach 40: Good for a national organization 50: Great for any organization 90: ca.gov, stanford.edu, nytimes.com See your DA score at moz.com/researchtools/ose/
Website Speed Do components load quickly? Is the overall page load time reasonable? Are CDNs, compression, and techniques such as JS/CSS aggregation being used?	<input type="checkbox"/> seconds	For a comprehensive test, you may visit testmysite.withgoogle.com or webpagetest.org . Speed is now a factor that affects search ranking. < 8s on 3G is OK.
Mobile-Readiness Does the site offer an effective mobile experience? Does the site have a responsive design that works well at all resolutions? Are key features and functionality viable on a small screen?	<input type="checkbox"/> Passed?	You can run the mobile-readiness test at google.com/webmasters/tools/mobile-friendly Google now penalizes sites that are not mobile friendly in mobile search results.
Secure Site (HTTPS / SSL / TLS) Is your site secure? Are you using modern encryption to ensure that your pages are not being modified in transit? Are you protecting the privacy of your visitors?	<input type="checkbox"/> Secure?	A quick check in the browser will reveal if visitors are required to use https to connect to your site. If you only have http:// , your site is not secure.  Secure https://
Analytics and Continuous Improvement Have you installed Google analytics? What other systems monitor popular content, implement A/B testing, or improve overall site performance and user engagement?	<input type="checkbox"/> installed?	You can check if Google Analytics is installed by using the scanner at bullwith.com .
Cross-Browser, Accessibility and Standards Compliance Does the site meet WC3 web standards and Section 508 compliance for users with disabilities? Is the site implemented using clear and modern coding standards? Does the site work on older browsers and/or degrade gracefully?	<input type="checkbox"/> Lighthouse Score	Ideally, you won't have errors, but don't worry if you get a few. Step 2: Use Content Strategies

ON YOUR WEBSITE: CONTENT STRATEGIES

- Write great, keyword-rich content (consider topic pages)
- Use important keywords in your URL or page address
(For example <https://www.ourdistrict.org/truth-about-public-records>)
- Use important keywords in your content and page titles
(For example Our District Name Facts About Public Records Requests)
- Think like your visitors!

Sometimes you have to guess ... but if you already have fake news out there, co-opt their language

Rumor Versus Fact - Uncovering the Real Story

RUMOR: A story or statement talked of as news without any proof of truth.

FACT: Something objectively verified with real, demonstrable evidence.

Step 3: Targeted Keywords

ON YOUR WEBSITE and SOCIAL MEDIA: HOW TO DO KEYWORD RESEARCH

- Make a list of important, relevant topics based on what you know about your district, or what people might be saying (or might say in the future) about your district
 - For example, “water supply” “water treatment” “rates” etc.
 - Try to avoid jargon
- Fill in those topic buckets with keywords and key phrases
 - For example: “water rates Acmeville” “are water rates raising in Acmeville?” “water supply” *
- Keep user intent in mind
 - It's more important that your web page addresses the problem a searcher intended to solve than simply carries the keyword the searcher used* *use both simple keywords (rate increase) and sentences (are rates increasing in [my community])

Step 3: Targeted Keywords

ON YOUR WEBSITE and SOCIAL MEDIA: HOW TO DO KEYWORD RESEARCH

- Research related search terms
 - Go to Google.com and plug in the keywords and phrases you think are relevant, and see what suggestions show up in the auto-populated drop down menu
- Use keyword research tools
 - Tools such as Ahrefs, SEMrush, Ubersuggest, Google Keyword Planner can help you come up with more ideas based on exact match and phrase match keywords/phrases

*again, use both simple keywords (rate increase) and sentences (are rates increasing in [my community])

<input type="checkbox"/> mosquito vector control	100 – 1K	Medium	–	$3.39	$10.60

Step 4: Build Credibility

ON YOUR SOCIAL: GET REPOSTS, SHARES, LIKES, COLLABORATIONS

- Ask your partners (particularly those with followers who overlap with yours) to like, repost, share, retweet, or even collaborate on important posts to widen visibility
- Getting shared by a  verified source can 5x your reach

Step 4: Build Credibility

ON YOUR WEBSITE: GET INBOUND LINKS

- Ask your partners (particularly those with a high Domain Authority [DA] score) to link to your important pages. Remember to supply them with the keywords you'd like them to use when linking.
- Post your content to social media, encourage sharing.
- Hey [local paper],

In the article you published yesterday, would you link “Mosquito Abatement Safety” in the second paragraph to our URL on our site? If not, would you consider adding us at the end as a related resource? We’re combating some misinformation about local spraying. Thank you so much for the coverage of this important issue!

A few final thoughts

THE SCIENCE OF SOCIAL MEDIA ALGORITHMS

- Social media algorithms are a way of sorting posts in a user's feed based on "relevancy" instead of publish time.
- Supposedly, social networks prioritize which content a user sees in their feed first by the likelihood that they'll actually want to see it.
- Before the switch to algorithms, most social media feeds displayed posts in reverse chronological order.
 - On Facebook and X there is still an option to set your feed to chronological order, or most recent

Don't delete

- Don't delete the offending post thinking it will just go away
- If you do need to delete something in accordance with your district's social media policies, document it

Don't hide

When government social media administrators use Facebook's tool to hide a comment, no notification or other indication is sent to the person who posted the comment. The citizen likely has no idea that their comment was hidden.

The real trouble in hiding comments on Facebook is that the commenter, and his or her Facebook friends, can still view the comment. Not only this, but they can continue the conversation by replying to the comment, without knowing that the comment is no longer public on your page.

How to create engaging posts that keep your community informed and involved.

Week 2: Master our 6 social media best practices

1. Who: Getting the right people involved
2. What: Content best practices
3. When: The science of timing - and not overdoing it
4. Where: Find your peeps, understanding
5. How: Know how to use each and some awesome new tools
6. Why: The most important, and our focus for next week

Stuff to consider

Who writes content?

Who will be posting to your social accounts:

- Board members who come and go?
- GM or Fire Chief, who typically has little time?
- Your volunteers, or young'uns, who may not have the “voice” yet?

Make sure you have policies that spell this out! (More later...)

What should you write/create?

Content and delivery guidelines

Have a plan

Your plan should address which platform, how often to post, and how to interact with the public in various situations (more on this in a bit).

Don't overdo it

You shouldn't post the same content, in the same way, to multiple platforms repeatedly, so choose a platform to start

- Based upon what has the best features for your needs
- And on how much time staff has to update ... and monitor / reply

Have a schedule

If you're short staffed, keeping social media up to date can be a challenge

- Create a content schedule and clear time for staff to focus on it when appropriate
- Have a content plan - don't post junk, just because the schedule says it's time
- Pull from or involve other great resources, like Districts Make the Difference

For over 100 years, local service agencies known as special districts have kept our lights on, kept the water flowing and provided access to a multitude of services that enhance our communities.

Special Districts provide vital services like water and energy, fire protection and public safety, treatment of waste water, and garbage removal and much more. They safeguard our communities, they work arduously

It's OK to skip the schedule sometimes

When something unscheduled happens - an outage, park closure, wildland fire, etc - post to social media immediately when possible

- For emergency related content, make sure you have clear guidelines on how much to post, and when

Finding your peeps

Do some research to find out what the majority of your citizens are already using

- What social media platforms do they use?
- Are they engaging differently on different platforms?
- How do they prefer to receive information from you?

How to find out: surveys, polls, bill stuffers, etc.

Social media survey

We're interested in knowing what social media platforms you use, and how you'd like to hear from us! Please fill out this brief survey to help us determine the best place for us to post content.

What social media platforms do you use regularly? (required)

- Facebook
- Twitter
- Instagram
- YouTube
- LinkedIn
- NextDoor
- Other

How would you like to receive information from us? (required)

- On the social media platforms I use
- Via email
- In a regular newsletter emailed to me
- On your website
- In a mailed newsletter

If your website supports adding forms, you could even build the survey there, for free. :)

Know how it works

Understand what functionality will work best for your district

- Facebook: Good for posts, pictures and threaded conversations
- YouTube: awesome platform for informational content
- X/Twitter: Good for posting brief updates or breaking news
- Instagram: Great for photogenic happenings and humor
- LinkedIn: Great place to post jobs, and LinkedIn Recruiter is awesome
- NextDoor: Good for updates, but you can't see citizen posts
- Snapchat + TikTok: Short form video content - good if your audience is younger.

Protips for creating

Know your purpose

What is the intent of your content? Are you trying to:

- Drive an action (aka, vote)?
- Get input from citizens?
- Educate, or entertain?
- Drive traffic to your website?

10 proven formulas

City of New York @nycgov · Feb 10

Sunny with some clouds and a high of 31 today. Time to dig out of the snow and slide right into the weekend. Stay warm!

Timeliness and Relevance:
Tie your storytelling to current events, local news, or seasonal themes. This helps to keep your content fresh and engaging.

City of Vancouver  @CityofVancouver · May 12

We are hiring 1,500 people to help with the #Vancouver municipal election  in October. Retweet to spread the word! ow.ly/TFMt30jSAFH #VancouverVotes

Data and Infographics:

Use data visualizations and infographics to communicate complex information in a clear and compelling way. This can be particularly effective for sharing budget information, project updates, or public health data.

Focus on Community
Impact:

Showcase how your government's initiatives directly benefit the lives of local residents. Share stories of individuals or families whose lives have been improved by your services or programs.

Humor and Lightheartedness: Don't be afraid to inject some humor or personality into your social media posts. Share fun facts about your community, highlight quirky local traditions, or celebrate silly holidays. This helps to humanize your government and make it more relatable.
